SOURCE

1. [REDACTED] 25X1X
25X1X every effort is being made to dissuade Jews who are members of the Rumanian Workers Party, and particularly those Jews who occupy sensitive or technical posts in the government, from emigrating to Israel.
2. Special lectures are presented to such individuals in an effort to explain to them the advantages they presently enjoy and the hardships and work awaiting them if they emigrate. They are informed that to leave Rumania now is to desert the cause and that they will be held accountable for such action in the future, wherever they are. Such persons are told that the "victory of Communism is dawning"; as a concrete example of the imminence of such victory they are told that "even the socialists of the right in the pay of the capitalists are conscience-stricken and are seeking to back out; this is the only way to interpret recent events in England".
